To ensure we maintain a high quality service, we may monitor or record telephone calls.

From the moment you or your insurance broker call, we will take full responsibility for dealing with your claim. When you telephone please ensure you have your policy number and details of the claim to hand.

We will:

- confirm whether the event is insured
- if necessary, arrange for a loss adjuster to contact you
- give you advice on how your claim will be dealt with and any excess you may have to pay.

In most cases you will need to complete a claim form.

If we cannot settle immediately, your claim will be under the personal control of a nominated claims handler who will manage the whole claim and will act as your point of contact. We will give you regular progress reports and settle your claim as fairly and promptly as possible.

1 How we use your information

The personal information, provided by you, is collected by or on behalf of Covéa Insurance and may be used by us, our employees, agents and service providers acting under our instruction for the purposes of insurance administration, underwriting, claims handling and for research, or statistical purposes.

We may also share your information with reinsurers and regulators, as required by law. From time to time we may need to undertake some of the processing of your data in countries outside of the European Economic Area, and in such cases we will ensure that there is an agreement in place which gives equivalent assurances as found in the Data Protection Act 1998.

We will not use your information or pass it on to any other person for the purposes of marketing further products or services to you. We will collect sensitive information when dealing with your policy; we will however only collect information that is relevant to your policy, its administration or claims handling.

Your personal information will be kept secure at all times.

2 Fraud Prevention and Detection

In order to prevent or detect fraud we will check your details with various fraud prevention agencies, who may record a search.

Searches may also be made against other insurers' databases. If fraud is suspected, information will be shared with those insurers.

Other users of the fraud prevention agencies may use this information in their own decision making processes. We may also conduct credit reference checks in certain circumstances. You can find out further details explaining how the information held by fraud prevention agencies may be used or in which circumstances we conduct credit reference checks and how these checks might affect your credit rating by contacting Covéa Insurance.

3 Disclosure of Other People's Personal Information
